Carnarvon.*

29th. January 19 26.

To
The Port Sanitary Authority,
Carnarvon.

Gentlemen,

I have the honour to submit to you my Annual Report for the year ending 31st. December 1925.

All ships arriving were examined for the purpose of ascertaining their sanitary condition. Seven ships came from foreign parts :-

- 2 From OPORTO with slate slabs.
- 1 From GHENT with Basic Slag.
- 1 From SUNDSWELL with Timber.
- 3 From ROSCOFF with Onions.

None of them had a history of disease having occurred on board during the voyage, and all the crews were in good health on arrival at Carnarvon Port. No defects were found in the ships;
All parts were clean.

Examination and enquiry as to the presence of rats was done in every case, but no need of any treatment was found necessary.

No meat, or any kind of food, except onions, is imported to Carnarvon from foreign ports.

All the coast trade is between Liverpool and Carnarvon.

No vessel from an infected port arrived.

The latrines at the Dock and Harbour were always found in a satisfactory condition.

Enclosed is an account of the work done by the Sanitary Inspector.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

H. R. Griffith

Medical Officer of Health.
Port of Carnarvon

Dr G.R.Griffith

Medical Officer of Health

Carnarvon Port Sanitary Authority

Dear Sir/

I beg to enclose herewith particulars of shipping inspection during the year ending 31st December 1925;

The coasting trade is practically carried on between here and Liverpool, the same vessels going backwards and forwards.

I made an inspection on the Hospital out at Cynifryn on two occasions, and found it to be in good condition.

Nuisances from dead animals on the foreshore were abated on six occasions.

I am

Yours Obediently

Evan Roberts

Dr. H.R. Griffith

National Officer of Health

Government of India

Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose herewith particulars of shipping inspection during the year ending 31st December 1924.

The sailing time is practically equal on Indian ports and Liverpool, the main vessels being passenger and freight.

I made an inspection of the H.M.S. at Gylfryn on two occasions, and found it to be in good condition.

Whichever of the two ships on the Liverpool route on the 1st December.

I am

Yours faithfully
